

Jack Hahn Shoots High Score in Police Match

Sgt. Jack Hahn shot high score of Torrance Police Department teams in competition with six other South Bay departments last week. Hahn shot 270 out of a possible 300.

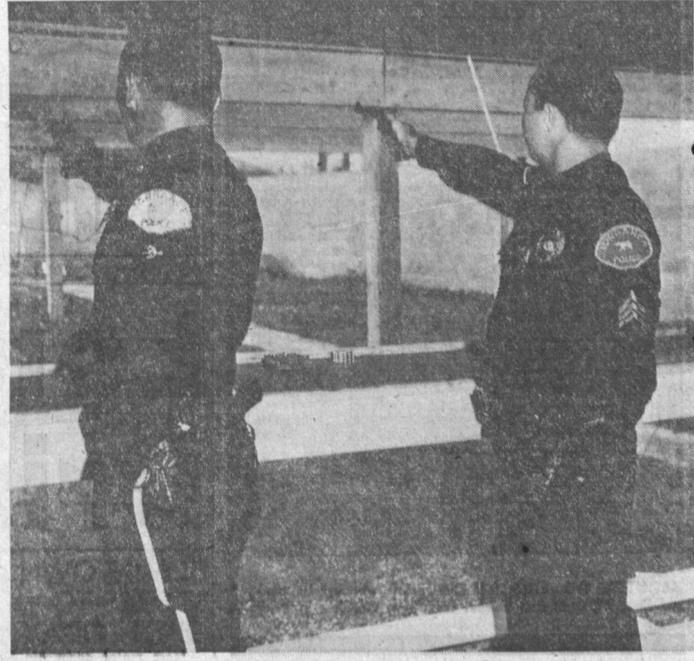

Each month two teams compete with other agencies on a range in a different city. In January a trophy will be awarded to the winning department at a special dinner meeting.

Redondo Beach holds the trophy this year with victories by its first and second teams. In this month's match, Torrance came in third. Redondo was first, and Manhattan Beach second. In second-team competition, Redondo was first, Torrance second.

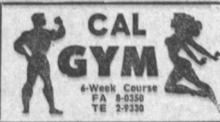

Torrance shooters were Glenn Boyce, Bob Jones, Jim Doyle, Sgt. Dave Cook, Jim Daniels, Hahn, Bob Lydon, Gene Erbetta, Tom Woolridge, and Sgt. Bill Mitchell.

Gas Company Robbed

A bandit entered the gas-company office at 1340 Post Thursday morning and took $42 from Mary E. Lux, a cashier. Mrs. Lux was alone in the office. The robber demanded all the big bills.

ON THE FIRING LINE—Tom Woolridge shoots with Sgt. Jack Hahn. At dinner next month individual shooters will be awarded trophies in each of three categories—expert, marksman and sharpshooter. This month's shoot was conducted at Redondo range on 190th St. Torrance Police Department has held trophy in the past. This year's was won by both teams of Redondo PD.

Civil Liberties Group Organizes South Bay Unit

Torrance residents participated Wednesday night in forming the South Bay chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union.

At the organizational meeting, held in the Holy Park Methodist Church, Gardena, the group heard a talk by Dr. Eason Monroe, head of the Southern California organization.

He spoke on civil liberties, the outlook for the next 10 years, and reviewed the past decade.

Mrs. George Fargo, head of the San Gabriel Valley branch, spoke on organizational issues. A 12-man steering committee was named to plan activities and a program for people interested in preserving civil liberty.

Mrs. Richard Glickman conducted the meeting.
